

Many (all) the questions have been answered during the Q&A period. Nevertheless, we ask that you provide written answers below so students can come back to read them again. Thanks!

1. Will you be writing a book on the SSI history?

I would not write a book. I have too much on my plate for the foreseeable future. I would be open to writing an article (probably with others).