Akira Yamamoto has been awarded the

Order of the Sacred Treasure,
Gold Rays with Neck Ribbon

bestowed by the Emperor of Japan.

The award recognizes his central role in the development of Superconducting RF technology.

There is a new video promoting ILC, which was shown at the APS March Meeting and is now available on YouTube:

Jenny List and I provide appropriate commentary.

Thanks to Rika Takahashi, Barbara Warmbein, Sho Murakashi, and WebsEdge Ltd.

I hope that you find this useful for audiences outside particle physics.
